PALO ALTO COUNTIES

ORDER ACCEPTING RESIGNATION
OF MENTAL HEALTH ADVOCATE
Rose Lloyd and

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER #2014 # 23

ORDER APPOINTING MENTAL HEALTH ADVOCATE
Allison Dreke

The undersigned has received the resignation as the mental health advocate for Clay, Dickinson, Lyon, O'Brien, Osceola and Palo Alto counties from Rose Loyd. The court finds that the resignation should be accepted.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

A. The resignation of Rose Lloyd be accepted and her appointment as the mental health advocate is terminated effective October 5th, 2014. Ms. Rose Lloyd shall turn in all paper documents and files to the respective Clerk of Court for the respective county or to the new MH Advocate Allison Dreke. The clerks shall have Ms. Lloyd sign off on a form verifying all records kept and possessed in the course of performing the duties of mental health advocate have been turned over to the clerk of court or advocate. Each respective clerk of court will turn over the documents and files to the new mental health advocate.

B. Pursuant to Iowa Code Section 229.19,

1. APPOINTMENT: Commencing immediately in Lyon, Osceola, O'Brien, Clay, Dickinson and Palo Alto counties, Allison Dreke, 907 S. Tama St., Rock Rapids, Iowa 51246, (phone 712-631-0999) is appointed as mental health advocate for all patients involuntarily hospitalized by the court in matters relating to patients' hospitalization or treatment under Iowa Code Chapter 229.

2. DUTIES: The advocate's duties shall be as provided by Iowa Code Chapter 229.

3. COMPENSATION: The advocate's claims for compensation and mileage shall be approved by the respective judicial officer performing mental health work in the respective counties after having been audited by the district court administrator's office. The rate of pay shall be as set forth in a separate administrative order. Ms. Dreke is allowed to bill for up to 20 hours for training time and mileage as she deems necessary within the two months following her appointment. Any costs of training and other expenses not directly attributable to a particular patient from any particular county shall be split evenly among the six counties.

4. PENDING CASES: Allison Dreke shall be deemed the advocate on pending cases in the impacted counties and replaces the existing advocate without need of further court order.

Each respective clerk of court shall notify their respective county attorney, judicial officer handling mental health cases, county CPC, county auditor, their respective county board of supervisors and the district court administrator. The Lyon County Clerk of Court shall send a copy of this order to Allison Dreke at ADreke1982@gmail.com. The Clay County Clerk of Court shall send a copy to Rose Lloyd.

Dated this 2nd day of October, 2014.
